 - providing unlawful content;
 - taking actions that may disrupt the operation of the Website;
 - providing false information when purchasing a Ticket;
 - reselling Tickets for profit.

§4. Conditions for Concluding Agreements for the Provision of Electronic Services

Ticket Purchase

1. A Ticket is obtained by completing the order form in the Ticket sales system available at cnd2026.konfeo.com, confirming the registration. In the case of paid Tickets, obtaining a Ticket additionally requires selecting the payment method and making the payment.
2. In the case of paid Tickets, before payment is made, the Service Recipient shall be informed of the Ticket type, the gross price, the date and venue of the Event, and the fact that using the function finalising the purchase entails an obligation to pay. The function used to finalise the purchase shall be labelled in a clear manner indicating the obligation to pay. In the case of free Tickets, the Service Recipient shall be informed of the free-of-charge nature of the Ticket before completing the registration.
3. In the case of paid Tickets, the agreement shall be deemed concluded when the Service Recipient receives confirmation of the Ticket purchase after successful payment, by e-mail sent to the address provided in the order form. A message confirming registration with a waiting-for-payment status shall not constitute confirmation of Ticket purchase. In the case of free Tickets, the entitlement to attend the Event shall arise when the Service Recipient or Participant receives registration confirmation or the Ticket is issued in electronic form.
4. The purchase confirmation or registration confirmation shall include the Participant's details, the Ticket type, and instructions regarding participation in the Event.
5. Ticket prices are stated in Polish zloty (PLN) as gross prices and include VAT in accordance with applicable law. Free Tickets are marked as free of charge or with a price of PLN 0.
6. At the Service Recipient's request, the Organizer shall issue a VAT invoice for paid Tickets. The invoice shall be issued in electronic form and sent to the e-mail address provided during the purchase process within 7 days from the date of Ticket purchase or from receipt of complete invoice details, whichever occurs later. In order to obtain an invoice, the purchaser's details, including company name, tax identification number, and address, must be provided in the order form or the request must be sent to organizers@cloudnatedayspoland.org immediately after purchase.

Refund Policy and Ticket Transfer

7. Pursuant to Article 38(12) of the Polish Consumer Rights Act of 30 May 2014, the right to withdraw from a distance contract shall not apply to services related to entertainment, sports, or cultural events if the agreement specifies the date or period of performance of the service. The Ticket relates to participation in the Event held on a specified date, including in particular the conference programme, networking, exhibitor area, and accompanying events. Therefore, subject to the cases expressly indicated in these Terms and Conditions, the purchase of a Ticket is not subject to withdrawal or refund.

8. A purchased paid Ticket is non-refundable, subject to Sections 10, 11, and 12 below. No refund of the Ticket price applies to free Tickets.
9. A Participant may transfer a Ticket to another person free of charge. To make such a transfer, the Organizer must be notified by e-mail at organizers@cloudnatedayspoland.org, with the details of the current Participant and the new Participant. The transfer shall take effect upon confirmation by the Organizer. A Ticket transfer may be requested no later than 7 days before the start of the Event, unless the Organizer agrees to a later change of Participant details.
10. If the Event is cancelled for reasons attributable to the Organizer, the Ticket price shall be refunded to the Service Recipient within 14 days from the date of cancellation using the same payment method as that used for purchase, unless otherwise agreed.
11. In the event of a material change to the date, venue, or format of the Event, in particular a change from an in-person event to an exclusively remote event, the Organizer shall promptly inform the Service Recipients. In such case, the Service Recipient shall have the right either to accept the new conditions or to resign from the Participant's attendance at the Event and request a full refund of the Ticket price within 14 days from submitting such resignation. A material change of venue includes, in particular, a change to another city or a change of location that objectively makes attendance at the Event more difficult. A change of room, floor, or space within the same venue shall not constitute a material change of venue.
12. If cancellation of the Event or a material change to the date, venue, or format of the Event results from force majeure, understood as an external event which could not have been foreseen or prevented, including in particular a pandemic, epidemic, war, natural disaster, or decisions of public authorities, the Organizer shall promptly inform the Service Recipients of the situation. The Service Recipient shall retain the right to a refund of the Ticket price; however, the time limit for such refund may be extended to 30 days from the cessation of the force majeure circumstances or from the Organizer's decision to cancel the Event. The Organizer shall not be liable for any additional costs incurred by the Service Recipient or Participant in connection with attendance at the Event, including in particular travel costs, accommodation costs, or loss of profit, unless mandatory provisions of law provide otherwise.

Termination of the Agreement

13. The agreement for the provision of the electronic service consisting of a one-time Ticket purchase shall terminate upon performance of the service, that is, upon the end of the Event, or, where a refund of the Ticket price is due under these Terms and Conditions, upon such refund being made.
14. The Service Recipient may stop using the Website at any time. This shall not result in termination of an already concluded Ticket sale agreement.

§5. Complaint Procedure

1. The Service Recipient has the right to submit a complaint regarding services provided electronically, including the Ticket purchase process.
2. Complaints should be submitted electronically to organizers@clouddnatedayspoland.org or in writing to the Organizer's registered office address: ul. Skierniewicka 14/66, 01-230 Warsaw.
3. A complaint should include:
 - the Service Recipient's full name and e-mail address;
 - the order number or purchase confirmation number;
 - a description of the issue being complained of;
 - the requested method of resolving the complaint.
4. The Organizer shall consider the complaint within 14 calendar days from the date of receipt and shall inform the Service Recipient of the outcome electronically to the e-mail address provided in the complaint.
5. If the complaint is not upheld, the Organizer shall provide reasons for its position.
6. The Organizer informs that, after the complaint procedure has been completed, a Service Recipient who is a consumer may use out-of-court methods of resolving consumer disputes in accordance with applicable law. Information on such methods and on the entities authorised to conduct such proceedings is available on the website of the President of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection.

§6. Personal Data Protection

1. The controller of the Service Recipients' personal data is the Innoventis Foundation, ul. Skierniewicka 14/66, 01-230 Warsaw.
2. Personal data is processed for the purpose of performance of the Ticket sale agreement and organisation of the Event, pursuant to Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR.
3. Detailed information regarding the processing of personal data is set out in the Privacy Policy available on the Website.

§7. Final Provisions

1. The Organizer reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions. Any amendments shall enter into force on the date of publication of the updated version on the Website and shall not affect agreements concluded before the date of the amendment.
2. In matters not regulated herein, the provisions of Polish law shall apply, in particular the Civil Code, the Act on Providing Services by Electronic Means (Journal of Laws of 2002, No. 144, item 1204, as amended), and the Consumer Rights Act.
3. Any disputes arising out of agreements concluded on the basis of these Terms and Conditions shall be resolved by the court having jurisdiction under the general rules. In the case of Service Recipients who are consumers, court jurisdiction shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4. These Terms and Conditions shall enter into force on the date of their publication on the Website.
5. This English-language version is provided for convenience only. In the event of any discrepancy, inconsistency, or conflict between the Polish-language version and the English-language version, the Polish-language version shall prevail.
