§1. General Provisions

1. These Terms and Conditions set out the rules for participation in the Cloud Native Days Poland 2026 conference organised by the Innoventis Foundation.
2. The terms used in these Terms and Conditions shall have the following meanings:
 - a. Organizer means the Innoventis Foundation, with its registered office at ul. Skierniewicka 14/66, 01-230 Warsaw, KRS: 0001188169, NIP: 5273178248, REGON: 542504270;
 - b. Conference means the Cloud Native Days Poland 2026 conference taking place on 22 October 2026 in Warsaw, at Chmielna 73, Varso Tower complex;
 - c. Sales Terms and Conditions means the Electronic Services Terms and Conditions of the Innoventis Foundation, setting out the rules for purchasing Tickets electronically, payments, issuing invoices, refunds, Ticket transfers, and complaints relating to transactions;
 - d. Ticket means an electronic confirmation entitling the Participant to attend the Conference, issued either for a fee or free of charge, depending on the Ticket type;
 - e. Participant means a natural person entitled to attend the Conference on the basis of a Ticket;
 - f. Service Recipient means a natural person, legal person, or organisational unit purchasing a Ticket or using the services specified in the Sales Terms and Conditions.
3. The Sales Terms and Conditions shall apply to the purchase of Tickets, payments, issuing invoices, refunds, Ticket transfers, and complaints relating to transactions. In the event of any discrepancy between these Terms and Conditions and the Sales Terms and Conditions in this respect, the Sales Terms and Conditions shall prevail.
4. These Terms and Conditions are available on the Conference website at cloudnatedayspoland.org.
5. These Terms and Conditions are made available before completion of the Ticket purchase process or registration for the Conference. Making payment or completing the registration for a free Ticket after these Terms and Conditions have been made available constitutes confirmation that the Service Recipient or Participant has reviewed and accepted these Terms and Conditions..

§2. Participation

1. Adults may participate in the Conference. Minors may participate only under the supervision of an adult.
2. Entry to the Conference venue is subject to presentation of a valid Ticket, in electronic or printed form, and an identity document, if the Organizer considers this necessary.
3. The Organizer reserves the right to refuse entry to, or remove from, the Conference venue any person who:
 - is under the influence of alcohol or intoxicating substances to a degree that poses a safety risk, disrupts the course of the Conference, or interferes with the comfort of other persons;
 - breaches these Terms and Conditions;
 - behaves aggressively or in a manner that threatens the safety of other Participants or staff;
 - acts to the detriment of the Organizer or other Participants.
4. Removal of a Participant from the Conference for the reasons indicated in Section 3 shall not entitle that Participant to a refund of the Ticket price.

§3. Tickets

1. A Ticket entitles the holder to a single entry to the Conference venue.
2. A Ticket is personal to the named holder. The rules regarding transfer of a Ticket to another person, refunds, payments, invoices, and complaints relating to transactions are set out in the Sales Terms and Conditions.

§4. Programme and Speakers

1. The Organizer reserves the right to make non-material changes to the Conference programme, including changes to speakers, session topics, presentation times, and room allocation, without entitling the Service Recipient to a refund of the price of a paid Ticket on that basis.
2. Changes to the programme shall be communicated on the Conference website and, if they arise after the Participant has registered, also by e-mail.
3. Content presented by speakers expresses solely their own views and does not constitute the position of the Organizer.

§5. Rules of Conduct

1. The Organizer undertakes to provide a safe, open, and respectful environment for all Participants, speakers, volunteers, and sponsors.
2. In particular, the following is unacceptable:
 - harassment, discrimination, and violence in any form;
 - persistent pestering, unwanted contact, violation of personal boundaries, or continuing a conversation despite the other person's express lack of consent;
 - hate speech and content insulting other Participants;
 - photographing or recording other persons without their consent;
 - unauthorised commercial or advertising activity;

- disrupting sessions or presentations;
 - retaliatory actions against persons reporting breaches or supporting such reports.
3. Any breaches should be reported to the Organizer, either to volunteers wearing “ORGANIZER” badges or directly to organizers@cloudnatedayspoland.org. Reports shall be treated confidentially. The Organizer shall examine each report and take appropriate action. In particular, the Organizer may issue a warning, refuse further participation in the Conference, remove the person violating the rules from the Conference venue, refuse that person’s participation in future events organised by the Organizer, or notify the relevant authorities if the nature of the breach so requires.

§6. Recording and Image Rights

1. The Conference shall be photographed and recorded by the Organizer or entities authorised by the Organizer for the purpose of documenting the course of the Conference, informing about its course, and promoting the Conference and its future editions, in particular on the Conference website, on the Organizer’s social media channels, and in promotional, informational, and recap materials. Such materials may be used without territorial or time limitation to the extent related to the Organizer’s and the Conference’s informational, documentary, and promotional activities.
2. The Participant acknowledges that participation in the Conference involves the possibility of the Participant’s image being captured in photographic or audiovisual materials documenting the course of the Conference, in particular in shots of the audience, stage, booths, conference space, networking, and accompanying events.
3. A Participant who does not wish their image to be captured or disseminated in individual shots, or in materials in which they are the main subject, may notify the Organizer of this during registration or during the Conference. The Organizer shall use reasonable efforts to accommodate such request, subject to the possibility of the Participant’s image being captured in general shots or as part of a larger whole of the Conference.
4. Giving a statement on camera, posing for a photograph, participating in an interview, or knowingly taking part in a recording made by the Organizer or persons authorised by the Organizer shall be treated as consent to the recording and dissemination of the Participant’s image to the extent resulting from the nature of the material concerned.
5. Sessions and presentations may be recorded by the Organizer and subsequently made publicly available. The rules regarding the recording and dissemination of the image, voice, presentations, and speeches of speakers shall be governed by separate arrangements with the speakers.

6. Recording sessions by Participants on their own is permitted solely for private use and requires the prior consent of the speaker. Publication of recordings without the consent of the speaker and the Organizer is prohibited.

§7. Liability

1. The Organizer may provide Participants with a self-service, unattended, and unlocked place for leaving outerwear or personal belongings, including in particular a cloakroom area, hangers, or lockers. The Organizer does not provide safekeeping, protection, or supervision for items left in such place. Any items are left there solely at the Participant's own risk. The Organizer shall not be liable for the loss of, damage to, or theft of such items unless the damage results from fault on the part of the Organizer or mandatory provisions of law provide otherwise.
2. The Organizer shall not be liable for any damage resulting from the actions of Participants or third parties unless the damage was caused through the fault of the Organizer or unless mandatory provisions of law provide otherwise.
3. The Participant shall bear full liability for any damage caused by the Participant at the Conference venue towards the Organizer, the owner of the venue, and other Participants, in accordance with applicable law.
4. The Organizer shall not be liable for disruption in the implementation of the programme resulting from causes beyond its control, including in particular technical failures, force majeure, or decisions of public authorities, subject to the rights of Participants and Service Recipients provided for in these Terms and Conditions, the Sales Terms and Conditions, and mandatory provisions of law.

§8. Processing of Personal Data

The rules for processing Participants' personal data, including the legal bases, scope, and rights of data subjects, are set out in the Privacy Policy and the Sales Terms and Conditions, both available at cloudnatedayspoland.org. The data controller is the Innoventis Foundation; contact: organizers@cloudnatedayspoland.org.

§9. Sponsors and Partners

1. The list of Conference sponsors and partners is available on the Conference website.
2. Participants' contact details shall not be shared with sponsors without the Participant's prior explicit consent.
3. Sponsors' promotional activities at the Conference venue may take place only in designated areas and in accordance with the conditions agreed with the Organizer.
4. A Participant may voluntarily provide their data to a sponsor or partner, in particular by scanning their badge, completing a form, participating in a sponsor activity, or providing data directly. In such case, the sponsor or partner shall be responsible, as a separate controller, for further processing of the data in accordance with the information provided by that sponsor or partner.

§10. Complaint Procedure

The procedure for submitting and examining complaints relating to the purchase of a Ticket is set out in the Sales Terms and Conditions. Complaints concerning the course of the Conference, including organisational and safety matters, should be submitted electronically to organizers@cloudnatedayspoland.org within 30 days from the date of the Conference. A complaint should include the full name, e-mail address, description of the incident, and the requested method of resolving the complaint. The Organizer shall respond within 14 days from receipt of the complaint.

§11. Final Provisions

1. In matters not regulated herein, the provisions of Polish law shall apply, in particular the Civil Code and the Consumer Rights Act.
2. The Organizer reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions. Any amendments shall enter into force upon publication of the updated version on the Conference website and shall not affect rights acquired by Service Recipients or Participants prior to the date on which the amendment is introduced.
3. The invalidity or ineffectiveness of individual provisions of these Terms and Conditions shall not affect the validity or effectiveness of the remaining provisions.
4. These Terms and Conditions shall apply from the date of their publication on the Conference website. Cloud Native Days Poland 2026 is a non-profit conference organised by the Innoventis Foundation. All proceeds from ticket sales and sponsorship are allocated exclusively to covering organisational costs
5. This English-language version is provided for convenience only. In the event of any discrepancy, inconsistency, or conflict between the Polish-language version and the English-language version, the Polish-language version shall prevail.
